Projects & Experience

Frontend Developer, ThreadChat 07/2026 – Present

- Developed frontend features for the ThreadChat browser extension, a companion to a real-time threaded chat platform, using SvelteKit 5, TypeScript and Tailwind CSS v4.
- Built a YouTube video import flow: detects open browser tabs through the Chrome extension API, filters for valid video links, retrieves paginated comments from the backend, and lets users pick a comment to create a linked thread.
- Integrated frontend components with REST endpoints for comment retrieval and thread creation, and worked within the extension's Google OAuth authentication flow.
- Contributed to feature planning and user-flow decisions through regular brainstorming sessions and calls.

Frontend Engineer, Megatron's Workstation 09/2026 – 11/2026

- Built a customer-facing web appl using Next.js, React, TypeScript, and Tailwind CSS, featuring a dashboard, plan browsing, and account activity pages.
- Integrated REST APIs for plans, authentication, and purchases, and implemented Google sign-in with profile completion and post-login redirects.
- Collaborated with UX designers to translate Figma designs into responsive interfaces and coordinated with backend developers to align implementation and workflows.

Frontend Developer, Intern Assessment 04/2026 – 05/2026

- Developed a pixel-perfect, responsive implementation of a Figma design using Next.js (App Router) and Tailwind CSS.
- Structured the application with reusable, modular components following scalable frontend architecture.
- Applied responsive design, semantic HTML, and accessibility best practices to ensure usability across mobile, tablet, and desktop devices.

Frontend Developer, Axia Africa 09/2025 – 12/2025

- Built a responsive learning platform using React and Tailwind CSS, featuring a landing page, dashboard, courses, assignment tracking, and profile management.
- Integrated multiple REST APIs and implemented authentication using DummyJSON, handling asynchronous data fetching with the Fetch API.
- Implemented API error handling and tested edge cases to improve application reliability and user experience.

Frontend Developer, Personal Project, Modern Bank App 04/2025 – 05/2025

- Built a responsive, modern, mobile-first banking application using React and Tailwind CSS.
- Developed reusable React components with prop-based composition and lifecycle optimization.
- Integrated asset management and dynamic component rendering with map functions for scalable UI sections.

Junior Frontend Developer, Tech4Dev 09/2023 – 05/2024

- Collaborated with product designers to develop and implement a website called Healthy Diet for All using HTML, CSS, and React.js.
- Worked closely with the backend developer to implement frontend and backend functionalities to aid real-time data processing and analysis.
- Created technical documentation for codebase and development processes.
